

Andrew W. Spath, DDS

2121 East Coast Highway, Suite 230 • Newport Beach, CA 926250 • andrewspathdds@gmail.com • (949) 720-1101

OBJECTIVE:

- “Enhancing quality of life by delivering excellence in dental care guided by our passion for what we do and our desire to care for each person like family and friends.”

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Andrew Spath, DDS Incorporated

June 2010- Present

- Premiere Dental Practice in Newport Beach treating Professionals and Families
- Delivering Preventative, Cosmetic and Implant Dentistry with Integrity and Technical Excellence
- Practice Growth in June 2010 start with no patients to October 2013 over 2000 active patients

UCLA School of Dentistry, Lecturer

January, 2011-Present

- Clinical Instructor and Lecturer at the UCLA School of Dentistry

UCLA Venice Dental Center, AEDG instructor, Surgical Implant Placement 2017

August, 2014-July

- Hands on education with post doctorate dentist on the surgical placement of dental implants

Mentor, Kois Center

July 2015-Present

- Completed over 200 hours of continued education, past rigorous exam, and presented a case in front of some of the most respected dentist in the world.
- Assist in the post-graduate education of dentist.

Orange County Dental Society Ethics Committee

June 2020-present

- Member of the committee sanctioned by the California Dental Association to review ethics of members

Orange County Peer Review Board

2014-2018

- Member of counsel that review cases involving disputes involving patients and dentists

Fellow in the Academy of General Dentistry

June 2013

- Completed a rigorous exam, over 750 hours of approved continued education, maintain membership in Academy of General Dentistry for the continuous years, and be in practice for a minimum of 5 years.
- Achieved by less than 7% of Dentists

Kois Center Graduate

April 2013

- Completed over 200 hours of continued education at the renowned Kois Center in areas including Implant Dentistry, Periodontics, Treatment Planning, and Occlusion based on a risk reduction model of dentistry

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE:

Flying Samaritans Volunteer

November, 2009 – 2011

- On-going volunteer for Flying Samaritans, a non-profit organization operating free medical clinics in Baja California, Mexico.

One Brush August 2010
Volunteer

- Put together a trip to Gigante, Nicaragua where volunteers handed out toothbrushes and dental floss while educating community youth about oral health.

Orangewood January 2011-Present
Volunteer

- Performing free dentistry on foster youth through the Orangewood Foundation totaling over $15,000.

S.C.O.P.E (Student Community Outreach Program) July, 2004 – June, 2007
 Associate

- Provided dental care and education to underprivileged children in the San Francisco bay area

Andrew Spath, DDS Office Guatemalan Dental Relief Mission April 2017

- Raised $15,000 with independent fundraisers over the course of 2 years to take the entire staff for a 7 day mission to Guatemala
- Treated over 115 people with preventative and restorative dentistry

Fiji Medical Dental Mission February 2016

- 7 day dental Mission to Fiji providing oral surgery, restorative, prosthetic dentistry to those in need

EDUCATION:

University of the Pacific, Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry (San Francisco, CA)

- Completed WREB and California Ethics Exam June, 2007
- DDS Graduation June, 2007

University of California at Santa Barbara (Santa Barbara, CA)

- Bachelor of the Arts, Business Economics June, 2004
- National Society of Colligate Scholars
 - UCSB Honors Program
 - Health Professions Association

CONTINUING EDUCATION: ONLY LIMITED EXPERIENCES LISTED

FAGD (Fellow in the Academy of General Dentistry) 2013

- Achieved the honor of Fellow in the Academy of General Dentistry by completing more than 500 hours on continued education and passing a written exam.

Invisalign Certified (completed March, 2007)

- Ten week Invisalign certification course totaling 40 hours of hands on treatment and training with the orthodontists that developed Invisalign.
- Dr. Spath has completed over 100 cases on Invisalign

Kois Center

Course I, Treatment Planning I: Diagnostically Driven (completed October, 2009)

- Focus on the four essential components in the decision making process: esthetics, function, periodontology and biomechanics
- Evidenced based scientific approach to risk management developed to create more predictable outcomes from treatment

Course II, Functional Occlusion I: Science Driven Management (completed June, 2010)

- Three-day course that helps to understand the role of how occlusion relates to wear, mobility, TMD, stability and restorative failure

Course III, Periodontal Restorative Interface (completed January, 2011)

- Understanding the dental gingival complex is critical for predictable management of the soft tissue.

Course IV and V Track, Biomechanics (Completed March 2012)

- Fundamentals of Cohesively and Adhesively Restorations

- Impressioning, Provisionals, and Foundation Restorations

Course VI and VII, Implants Fixed and Removable(Completed October 2012)

- Prosthetic Fundamentals of Fixed Implant Restorations
- Restoring Missing Dentitions with Full Dentures, Implant Assisted, and Implant Supported Prosthetics

Course VIII, Occlusion II

- Complex case management achieving an understanding of somotognathic system.

Course IX, Treatment Planning II

- This course is designed to implement the thought process necessary in creating systematic treatment plans for any complex situation.

Kois Center Symposium

(July 2014,2015,2017, and 2019)

- Annually attend a 3 day course updating graduated of the Kois Center on the most recent science in dentistry

CAD CAM Training (completed 2008)

- Received over 40 continuing education hours in Cad Cam technology while completing more than 1500 Cerec inlays, onlays and crowns

R.V. Tucker Cast and Direct Gold Study Club (January, 2010 – present)

- Study Club with emphasis on studying gold as a medium to achieve restorative excellence. Over 100 hours of hands-on operation.

American Academy of Restorative Dentistry (February 2011, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2020)

- Attended the invitation only annual session in Chicago, Illinois

Pacific Coast Society for Prosthodontics (June 2011)

- Two day course designed for prosthodontics to update the latest therapies in Prosthetic Dentistry

Anteriors Master Course in Restorative and Esthetic Dentistry (May 2019)

- Three day hands on course in modern concepts from design to cementation.

Presentations

- Lecture Presentation RV Tucker Orange County Study Club “Impact of Sleep Related Breathing Disorders on Nocturnal Bruxism and Implementation of Pulse Oximetry as a Diagnostic Tool” February 2012

Publications

- Compendium of Continuing Education in Dentistry, February 2013, Feature article “Accelerated Orthodontics, “Orthodontics with Surgical Acceleration Achieves Rapid Tooth movement, Helps Increase Case Acceptance”
- Compendium of Continuing Education in Dentistry, May 2017, Focal Point Article “Addressing the Challenges of Removing Modern Materials”

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES:

Member

- American Dental Association
- California Dental Association
- Academy of General Dentistry
- Orange County Dental Society
- Academy of R.V.Tucker Study Clubs
- American Academy of Operative Dentistry
- Alumni Kois Center

Leadership Roles

- Orange County Peer Review Board 2013-2017
- President RV Tucker Study Club #13 2012-2013
- Mentor Kois Center